Please Note:

It is the sole responsibility of the wedding couple to procure a Florida Marriage License before their wedding day. Abiding by Florida law, I Do! Weddings Key West cannot perform a ceremony without a valid license in hand at least one day before the wedding date. No exceptions can be made and no refunds given.

Florida Residents: Florida law mandates a 3-day waiting period for Florida residents from the date the license is issued by the Clerk's Office. Therefore, a valid marriage ceremony cannot take place until 3 days after the license is dated. No exceptions can be made and no refunds given.
